Price Paring

WE don't claim to sell meat cheaper than any one else in America. We do claim to sell good meat as cheaply as it can be sold and still leave us a small profit.

We're not in business for our health. Neither are you. We're in business to make an honest living. We are willing to take a small profit on a large number of sales.

Our customers are the satisfied kind because they know they get good meat, first class service and pay the minimum price.

yer by profession, it was newspaper work that brought him into connection with the lawless feudists of the Kentucky mountains and that is to a certain extent responsible for the plot of his story.

It is rare for a man of Mr. Buck's youth to be the author of a hundred thousand seller, but "The Call of the Cumberland" has already passed that amount.

The story has been dramatized and the play has met with unusual success throughout the country.

We have secured "The Call of the Cumberland" as our next serial and the first installment will be run in an early issue.
